Defendant has been in state custody for the past 36 days. The underlying facts are that she plead guilty to Operating While Impaired on May 5, 2010 and was sentenced to a fine and 24 months probation. She was placed on a tether. On May 17, 2010 she failed to appear at her court hearing and then she removed her tether. A warrant issued for her arrest.

Defendant remained in absconder status from May 17, 2010 until June 9, 2011, when she was arrested. Upon appearing in 41B District Court in June 2011, she was ordered to serve 36 days in the Macomb County Jail with credit for 17 days and was placed on probation until July 13, 2013, and was ordered to pay probation fees and attorney fees in the amount of $900.

Prior to absconding Defendant was living with her father and brother at 280 S. Gratiot, Mt. Clemens, MI.. Defendant asks that she be given a bond and a tether and that her brother be appointed as 3rd party custodian. Defendant argues that she has seen the light after being incarcerated for 36 days in Macomb County and should be given bond.

Although Defendant's brother, William Bruner, may be an appropriate 3rd party custodian, defendant is not an appropriate candidate for bond. Defendant's brother lived with her when she was arrested and convicted twice in state court for driving under the influence, and at that time clearly was not able to control her behaviors during her brief period on bond.

Defendant poses a risk of non-appearance. She has a history of alcohol abuse, she has two failures to appear in court, she has absconded from supervision, she is currently in fugitive status, she has used aliases in the past, and she has failed to adhere to court orders. She poses a risk of flight by a preponderance of the evidence. Detention is therefore ordered.
